ARRESTED FOR BIGAMY.

C. H. McLeod Formerly of This Place Caught in Colorado Springs.

C. H. McLeod, formerly of this village, was arrested in Colorado City, Col., last Thursday on the charge of bigamy.
With him at the time was a woman claiming to be his wife, and who says she does not know of any other. It is supposed she is Bessie E. McKeown a lodging house keeper of Boston to whom he was married on Sept. 28 last by the Rev.
Fr. Peter J. McCormack of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church of Boston. The couple claimed they were on their way to California.

It is further claimed that Charles Hector McLeod and Jennie Martha Brickett were married in Portland, Me., on Aug.
7, 1902. The record of that marriage at the office of the city clerk shows that he was a bookkeeper, aged 34, while the bride was 33 years of age and her parents' home is West Danville. The marriage was performed by the Rev. A. H.
Wright, pastor of the St. Lawrence street Congregational church. In their application, both stated it was their second marriage, and that their first life partner in each case was dead.

The arrest was brought about by the priest in Boston who performed the last marriage in September. It is understood that Fr. Rober of Colorado Springs became aware of the facts in the case and wrote to Fr. McCormack of Boston telling him the particulars, and a complaint was made to the police authorities there.
Two Boston police inspectors went West several days ago and will bring McLeod back to Boston some time this week.

NOTHING BETTER THAN "PAGE'S PERFECTED POULTRY FOOD."

D. J. Lambert of Apponaug, R. I., the maker of the famous "Death to Lice" remedies, and who is known all over the country as a poultry expert, says there is nothing better than "Page's Perfected Poultry Food." Here are his exact words: "Rations should vary with different seasons. Some kind of animal food is necessary at all times, and I have found nothing better or handsomer than "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."

food and the best ways of using it, write

Three Escaped Jail Birds Pass Through the Town and are Still Free.

There was quite an exciting time at E.
J. Smith's last Wednesday. Three tramps came along in the morning and one wanted to swap some shoes for a pair of old rubbers as his feet were sore. The exchange was made with Walter Kendall. After they were gone he telephoned to Sheriff Winch and he immediately came in his auto with Mr. Nichols, and finding them three men who had escaped from Haverill jail, they, with Mr. Kendall, took after them. They tracked them over the hills to Fred Lindsay's and from there to Danville, when it was dark. The men came home on the night train, but Mr. Winch thinks he will get them yet.
